Wellington.
From the Daily Journal.

A meeting of farmers of Sumner county, who are interested in protecting themselves against loss by theft is called to meet in Wellington a week from the coming Saturday for the purpose of organizing an Anti-Horse Thief association. This association will endeavor to head off much of the horse stealing that is going on in the county.

It is proposed to form a league of farmers residing in every part of the county, and when a case of horse stealing is reported, to spare no pains to catch the thief and see that he is punished. The fellows who are engaged in horse stealing in this part of the state will do well to take warning and quit the business entirely or remove the scene of their operations to a more congenial climate.

Mrs. George W. Stipp entertained at her home in the Fourth ward last night, in honor of her sister, Miss Frances Burgett of Illinois. An elegant banquet was spread. Music was furnished by Mrs. W. T. McElroy, Mrs. H. L. Woods, Mr. Woods and Miss Burgett. Crokinole and parlor croquet entered into the amusements of the evening.

An interesting feature of the evening's entertainment was a game wherein the guests were provided with cards upon which was some word or sentence. The guests were required to go to a blackboard and in a designated panel make an illustration of the word or sentence. The word or sentence contained on their card. After all the guests had drawn their illustrations on the blackboard they proceeded to solve each other's drawings, and endeavored to write on their own cards the words or sentences contained on the card of each guest. Mrs. Sumner Whitson solved fifteen out of the twenty-one, and was awarded the first prize, a fancy piece of needle work.

Those present at the event were: Messrs. and Mesdames H. W. Andrews, H. L. Woods, W. T. McBride, D. P. Wetzel, George F. Pitts, F. A. Ammen, J. G. Campbell, John T. Shewalter, Sumner Whitson, H. F. Smith, B. F. Sparr.

Colored society was in a glow last night. The A. M. E. people gave a "possum supper and dance" in the vacant building south of C. F. Luenig's furniture store, for the purpose of raising money for the purchase of a new stove for the infirmaries on their church on East Fourth street. Something like $25 was realized on the supper alone. The supper tables were reserved from 6:30 until 8:30 o'clock for the use of the "white folks." The white folks patronized the supper liberally. Stewed "possum," raccoon, corn pone, hot coffee, "chickens," sweet potatoes and slaw were served for 25 cents. Three large tables were constantly filled until 10 o'clock. Mrs. McGrunder acted as head waiter and dragged his feet around the dining room until he was worn out serving "possum." After supper was over the hall was cleared and the colored brothers and sisters revelled in the mazes of the waltz until early morning.

From the Daily Courier.

The Woodmen had a big time Tuesday night and the regulars again have the laugh on the non-attendees. D. M. Stone, who recently moved to the new farm, had never before attended the fraternal degree and the boys over there arranged with the lodge here to show him how it was done. A delegation of the Oxford boys, however, came over to see the fun. After the work of the evening was done the crowd adjourned to the Midnight Chop house and partook of oysters and other delicacies. The Oxford boys expressed themselves as highly pleased with the way they were treated and what home well satisfied.

The jury at the inquest over the body of D. W. Cornelius, the stock man killed by the cars at Hackney, returned a verdict of accidental killing. No one was censured for the accident.

Cornelius and Thompson, the man who purchased the cattle for the Kansas City commission firm, were together on the ground at the time and neither seemed to notice the approaching train. The fireman on the stock train called to them and Thompson stepped out of the way, but Cornelius became excited and stepped the wrong way.

Hon. Charles L. Brown was on the train that took the body of the dead man to Arkansas City, and he took possession of his effects, which he turned over to the coroner. It was decided to appoint Mr. Brown administrator of the man's estate, but later through some Texas stock men it was learned where the dead man's parents lived and they were communicated with. The body was buried at Arkansas City.

How to Cure Bilious Colic.

I suffered for weeks with colic and pains in my stomach caused by biliousness and had to take medicine all the while until I used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which cured me. I have since recommended it to a good many people. Mrs. P. Butler, Fairhaven, Conn. Persons who are subject to bilious colic can ward off the attack by taking this remedy as soon as the first symptoms appear. Sold by druggists.

Enfala, Ala., Nov. 15.—Three half-grown children lost their lives in the burning of an old frame house a mile from White Oak, Ala., Sunday night. Their parents, Louis Brown and wife, went to church, leaving the children, aged 12, 8 and 6 years, locked in the house.

STOCKS AND BONDS

NET DECLINES IN STOCKS EQUAL TO TUESDAY'S GAINS.

Speculation Not at All Lively and Operators Almost Monopolized by Room Traders—Total Sales Run Down Pretty Low and Declines General Throughout the List—Weakening Developments in the Granger Group—Southern and Southwestern Roads in Better Shape to Help Prices.

New York, Nov. 17.—Net declines today were about the same as net gains yesterday in the stock market. But the range of prices was a little wider, as there was a time during the day when they were called a fraction above yesterday's close. The extreme decline in some of the grangers and the coalers is, therefore, something over a point. Sugar ruled generally above last night's close, rising at one time 1 1/4 points, and this sustained the general market, for a time. A jump of 3/4 points in Consolidated Gas was also on the side of sustained prices, but the eccentric movements of the stock have come to be practically disregarded. Both of these stocks fell away to yesterday's level in the subsequent weakness. There was a lack of firmness in the price of St. Paul, notwithstanding the increase of over $100 in its earnings for the second week in November. The comparison is with a poor week last year and was considered as not showing the recent high rate of earnings fully sustained. The declaration of one of the regular quarterly dividends of 1 percent on Burlington brought realizing sales in that stock and also served to weaken somewhat the granger group. Southern and Southwestern stocks were comparatively firmer on the excellent second week earnings of Missouri Pacific, Wabash and Texas and Pacific, and on the continued heavy cotton movement in the south. Speculation, however, was almost dead and the dealing in speculative stocks was confined to the country and to room traders. Union Pacific was very heavy all day, and lost 1/4 percent net. This decline was coupled with a rise of nearly 2 points in the Kansas Pacific consol bonds.

Those present at the event were: Messrs. and Mesdames H. W. Andrews, H. L. Woods, W. T. McBride, D. P. Wetzel, George F. Pitts, F. A. Ammen, J. G. Campbell, John T. Shewalter, Sumner Whitson, H. F. Smith, B. F. Sparr.

Dec. Wheat—Put, 95 1/2; call, 95 1/2; Dec. Wheat—Put, 97; call, 97; Dec. Corn—Put, 30; call, 30 1/2.

Chicago, Nov. 17.—Cable this morning was not so strong as it was yesterday. The northwest were about 400 cars larger than last year. Clearances were moderate, 280,000 bushels. The early part of the season was very quiet, up to 12 o'clock we have seldom seen a dealer market. There was a feeling of uncertainty on the sale of all operators. Nobody seemed willing to buy or sell, and orders were very few. Later in the day, New York poured in some heavy orders to buy cash, and the oat market began steadily to advance. The advance in oats caused some stir in corn, and it was believed that the strength reflected the war sentiment between Austria and Turkey. This created a general scramble to get out of wheat and the market advanced steadily, closing practically 1/2 higher than last night. New York exporters took over 100,000 bushels for English ports and $6.00 out of port. Over 400,000 of corn was taken, and over 500,000 of wheat. The market was unchanged. The volume of the market was much more active than on exciting news and it is probably the desire of the professional speculators to leave them as a result of the fact that this rally simply offers another opportunity to get in a good scalp on the short side.

Corn was stronger of its own accord, unless it was in sympathy with oats, because these caused the wheat to move upward movement today. The export demand was considerably better, cash selling at 1 1/2 above last night's close. Provisions ruled some today, giving slight indications of taking on some activity. If we get an advance in this product, it will do to buy only on the weak places.
